LOK SABHA

The following Bill was introduced in Lok Sabha on 11th November, 1987:—

BILL No. 108 OF 1987

A Bill further to amend the High Court Judges (Conditions of Service)

Act, 1954.

Br it enacted by Parliament in the Thirty-eighth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the High Court Judges (Conditions of Service) Amendment Act, 1987.

28 of 1954.

2. In the High Court Judges (Conditions of Service) Act, 1954, in section 22A, in sub-section (2), for the words "an amount equal to twelve and a half per cent. of his salary", the words "two thousand five hundred rupees" shall be substituted.

Short title.

Amendment of section 22A.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Section 22A of the High Court Judges (Conditions of Service) Act, 1954 states that every Judge shall be entitled, without payment of rent, to the use of an official residence in accordance with such rules as may be made in this behalf and, in a case, where a Judge does not avail himself of the use of an official residence, he may be paid an allowance equal to twelve and a half per cent. of his salary every month. Under section 22D of the Act, the allowance so payable shall be exempt from incometax. It is proposed to enhance the said allowance to Rs. 2,500 per month in lieu of the high prevailing rentals.

2. The Bill seeks to achieve the above object.

NEW DELHI;

P. SHIV SHANKER.

The 30th October, 1987.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The Bill seeks to enhance the allowance payable to a High Court Judge who does not avail himself of the use of an official residence, from twelve and a half per cent. of his salary to Rs. 2,500 per month. The additional expenditure will be mainly borne out by the State Governments. The Central Government will have to meet the additional expenditure in respect of the Judges of the Delhi High Court and five per cent. of the additional expenditure in respect of the Judges of the Punjab and Haryana High Court. At present only two Judges of the Delhi High Court and eight Judges of Punjab and Haryana High Court are not availing themselves of the use of official residence. The Bill, if enacted and brought into operation, would therefore involve an additional recurring expenditure of the order of Rs. 43,200 per annum from the Consolidated Fund of India.

2. No non-recurring expenditure is likely to be involved.

SUBHASH C. KASHYAP, Secretary-General.
